18TH YEAR. NO. 89.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1901.

TWO CENTS.

KNOTTY POINTS FOR THE JUDGES

Decisions of the Circuit Court Will Be Handed Down on Monday.

SCREEN ORDINANCES CASES

Among Those Which Are to Be Judicially Decided—Mrs. Fallow, of Hanover Township, Wants Judgment for $2,567—Other Matters.

Lisbon, Sept. 28.—(Special)—The judges of the circuit court announced last night that the decisions for the present term will be handed down Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

Thirty-three cases, some of them involving very knotty legal propositions, have been disposed of. About 20 have been heard or tried. The East Liverpool screen ordinance cases are among those to be passed upon.

The case of Mrs. Alice Barnes, of Salem, vs. J. M. Reed, constable of Perry township, heard before Justice O. J. Astor, has been appealed by the defendant to common pleas court. Mrs. Barnes was given by a jury a judgment for $20 and costs. She claimed the constable unlawfully took possession of a wagon belonging to her.

A petition has been filed in common pleas court, by Elizabeth Fallow, against Joseph Fallow, of Hanover township. She claims the defendant owes her $2,567 and asks judgment for that amount; also that a mortgage she holds on a farm in Hanover township be foreclosed.

Mrs. Laura J. Thomas, of Salem township, who was recently adjudged insane, was taken to the asylum at Massillon today. She is about 60 years old and lives in dread of poverty and believes that she and her husband are penniless, although they are in very comfortable circumstances. She is very melancholy and at times is said to be wildly delirious.

Mrs. Laura Neiswonger has been appointed guardian of Mrs. Mary Ketchum, an aged woman of Madison township. Bond $100.

Marriage licenses: Charles G. Kindvater, Steubenville, and Sarah Shreever, East Liverpool; A. Fred Johnson, East Liverpool, and Lillian B. McKee, New Cumberland, W. Va.; William Henry Parkin, Sewickley, Pa., and Malinda E. Herren, Homeworth.

FIGHT AT CALCUTTA

In Which Two Women and the Husband of One Battled Strenuously.

The quiet little village of Calcutta was disturbed a few days ago by two well known women residents who became engaged in a fight. The trouble first started about one year ago over a road which runs through a farm and upon which one woman was accused of throwing water. The two had been bitter enemies and had never had the chance to demonstrate which was the better until they met in the road last Tuesday, when they tangled, using anything they could find for a weapon.

One combatant was struck on the head by a piece of brick thrown by the other and a wound several inches in length was inflicted. The husband of the assailant then caught the other woman and gave her a sound thrashing, making it necessary for both to be under the care of a physician.

THE SAENGERFEST

At Monaca Will Be Attended by East Liverpool Turners Tomorrow.

A large number of the leading members of the local Turner society will go to Monaca tomorrow, where they will attend a sangerfest. The attendance will be made up of the older members of the society at Beaver Falls, Rochester, New Brighton and this city.

The East Liverpool crowd will return on the late train tomorrow night.

THEY WANT STREET CARS

And Lisbon Road Residents Have Been Promised an Extension.

Residents of the Lisbon road have been given the assurance that the extension of the street railway to that locality will be built at once.

Within the next few days a force of men will be put to work on the line to Pleasant Heights, and it is expected that it can be finished by the first of the year. From present indications, however, no cars will be run to that point before spring.

The present equipment of the power house is taxed to the utmost in supplying what power is needed to run the present, rolling stock of the company, and although it is the intention to erect another power house at some other point along the line, it is hardly likely it can be completed and placed in operation before spring.

Probably on account of the assurance that the terms of the East Liverpool railway's franchise will be lived up to in this matter, there is unusual activity among the property owners in the Pleasant Heights district. Surveys are now being made for the opening of a street on the lower side of Lisbon road. The property through which the street will pass is being laid out in lots, and it is said are being sold at a rapid rate.

Every farm within a radius of four miles in that direction has been laid out in town lots, and it is likely the vicinity will be thickly settled within the next year.

IN TWENTY MINUTES

MARRIAGE LICENSE PROCURED AND COUPLE MARRIED.

The Nuptial Knot Tied in Quick Time for a Couple Last Night.

Justice H. P. McCarron holds the record for quick marriages and his reputation is becoming far famed. Just as he was about to leave his office for supper last evening a young couple called and informed him that they wished to be united as quickly as the law would allow.

James A. Young, of Wellsville, was the prospective groom. He told the justice that his reason for wanting to have the nuptial knot tied without delay was because he did not care to take his fiancée to his boarding house until he could claim her as his wife. He then explained that her parents had died and that she came to Wellsville to see him. They had long been engaged, he said, and he thought the time had come for them to get into double harness.

Accordingly the obliging magistrate hurriedly made out the necessary application, 'phoned to Lisbon and arranged all details in the probate's office, and forthwith pronounced the ceremony. All was over in 20 minutes, and Mr. and Mrs. Young left the office as happy as larks.

Mrs. Young's name on the application is given as Lizzie Belle Stetzel. Her former home was in Pennsylvania. Mr. Young is a brakeman on the C. & P. railroad. They will reside in Wellsville.

NARROW ESCAPE

Seth Rauch Fell From a Bicycle in Front of a Moving Car.

Seth Rauch, a conductor on the Southside line, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon. Rauch, who is just learning to ride a bicycle, took a trip down Carolina avenue. On the return trip he was overtaken by a car in charge of Motorman George Wynn, who began ringing the bell. This seemed to frighten Rauch and he, in endeavoring to catch himself and keep from falling, was thrown from the wheel directly in front of the car.

The presence of mind of the motorman saved his life, as the car was stopped several feet from him, and upon going to his assistance, thinking he was injured. Mr. Wynn and Mays, the conductor, discovered that in falling he had run his leg through one of the wheels, knocking out several spokes, and they had considerable trouble in separating him from the wheel.

Mr. Rauch was uninjured save for a few bruises.

DEMOCRATS WITHOUT ISSUES.

Much curiosity is felt to know upon what grounds the Democratic party in Ohio is going to ask support in this year of our Lord, 1901. With the admissions made in past campaigns that the Republican policy of protection is the proper one and the recent admissions that the attempt to radically change the currency system was not justified, it is difficult to understand upon what basis they will ask a change in administrative policy.—Akron Beacon Journal.

TORONTO VS. EAST LIVERPOOL.

Toronto high school football team will play the East Liverpool high school team on Saturday, Oct. 5. The Toronto boys claim to have an unusually strong team and propose to arrange games with other elevens in the neighborhood.

THE LOCALS WON IN A WARM GAME

A Contest at Ease Ball Which Was at Times Most Interesting.

FINE PITCHING BY BARKER

The Visitors Being Touched Up for Eleven Hits, Five of Which Were Secured in One Inning—The Final Score Was 6 to 5.

There was a decided difference in the game yesterday afternoon between the Painesville and local teams from that of Thursday. The visitors had their turn at bat playing in one inning and allowed the home team to get a lead from almost the start, but the finish was close and exciting, and for a time it looked as if the "other fellows" were going to win out.

McNicol was absent yesterday and John Heckathorne was placed on second. He went into the game without practice and perhaps to this fact is due some of the errors he had to his credit. Godwin was back in harness, and did great work at short. Though five errors were made by the locals during the game, they were not so costly as those of yesterday. However, the run that tied the score in the ninth inning was the result of one of the second baseman's bingles.

Barker pitched a fine game, allowing but six hits. Coffman was touched up for 11 hits, five of which were secured in the third inning, which netted four runs. He then settled down and shut the East Liverpoolers out until the ninth inning, when one more run was scored, which won the game.

At the start the Painesville players went after the ball for blood, and it was the belief of the less confident rooters that the local team was again doomed to defeat. One run was scored as a result of Catcher Davis' bad throw to third, but the home team evened matters by also scoring a run in the first, which was a homer by Godwin.

The second inning passed without a score for either side, but in the third, after two men had been retired, the locals waded into Coffman's curves and slaughtered them right and left. Several bad throws were of great assistance to the locals and when the third man was finally put out they were three scores in the lead.

Nothing happened in the fourth and fifth innings, but in the sixth the visitors took a spurt and caused considerable uneasiness. In this inning Godwin made a brilliant play. With a man on third Miller tried to steal second. Catcher Davis threw to Godwin, who jumped up and caught the ball with one hand, bucking Miller before he got near the base. The runner at third was also shut off from reaching home. Before the side was retired, however, Painesville scored twice.

As the eighth began excitement was reaching considerable height. The visitors were becoming desperate and played like their lives depended on their winning. The locals also worked hard, but were unable to keep their opponents from scoring. But they only got the one, and the home team was yet in the lead.

It was in the ninth that the spectators got their money's worth and found excitement enough for a dozen games. The visitors went to bat with determination to "kill" the ball. Barker kept his nerve steady and in short order had two of his victims down and out. So confident then were the spectators of success that many of them started to leave the grounds, feeling sure that the third man would fall easy prey. This was where they were fooled. Coffman was the third man up and drew a free pass to first. Violet next took the willow and smashed a liner down towards J. Heckathorne, which got away from him, allowing Coffman to score and Violet to reach third. Cooper then retired the side by sending a short fly to Godwin, which was easily caught.

With the score then a tie the locals took their turn at bat. Rising was the first man up and reached first on Flood's bad throw. He stole second and reached third on Godwin's sacrifice. Webb then pounded out a nice

GRAND MEMORIAL TO LATE PRESIDENT

Proposed by a National Association Which Was Formed at Canton.

HAS BEEN INCORPORATED

And the Incorporators Include Judge Day and Other Cantonians of Prominence—McKinley's K. of P. Lodge Memorial Services.

Columbus, Sept. 28.—(Special)—The incorporation papers of the McKinley National Memorial association, with headquarters at Canton, reached the office of the secretary of state yesterday. The purposes of the association are for "the erection and maintenance, at Canton, O., of a suitable memorial to William McKinley, late president of the United States, and raising the necessary funds for said purposes; and after fully providing for the same the surplus of such funds, if any, shall be devoted to such memorial as may be provided for the late president at Washington, D. C."

The incorporators are James H. Robertson, mayor of the city of Canton; Judge William R. Day, former secretary of state in President McKinley's cabinet; Attorney William A. Lynch, Hon. John C. Welty and Frank C. Case, all of Canton. The articles of incorporation are in Judge Day's handwriting.

Champion lodge, Knights of Pythias, of this city, of which President McKinley was an active member, will hold memorial services in honor of the late president next Thursday evening. Other lodges will be invited to participate in the event. Major McKinley was initiated in Champion lodge while filling the office of governor of this state. He always took an interest in its affairs and paid obligations just the same as any other member. The lodge attended the funeral at Canton in a body.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY

Daniel Bold, of Calcutta, the Only Culprit in Police Court.

Daniel Bold, of Calcutta, was arrested last night by Patrolman Woods, charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct. When taken before the mayor this morning Daniel did not appear to be half as bold as he was last night. He told his honor that he was guilty as charged and a fine of $2 and costs was assessed. Daniel didn't happen to have the necessary cash with him, and now languishes in an iron cage waiting on a friend to come to his assistance.

There were no other arrests last night, and business at police court has once again lapsed into a state of quietude.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD

Established By a Pacing Team at the Fair at Canfield.

Lisbon, Sept. 28.—(Special)—At the Canfield fair, which was closed yesterday, a world's racing record was established. Nichol and Sid Scott, owned and driven by Brose McMahon, of Canfield, together paced an exhibition mile on a half-mile track to bike four wheeler in 2:12. The same team has held the record since last year at 2:13. A Canadian team claimed the honor on a record of 2:12½.

MAY PROVE COSTLY

Residents Say Sheridan Avenue Fill Was Not Started Right.

It is likely the filling being done along Sheridan avenue near the Greenwood brewery will cost the city a great deal more than the amount of the engineer's original estimate. This is mainly due to the fact that the work was not started right. In the beginning, before any dirt was deposited there, a number of posts were placed along the avenue and planks laid on the inside to the height of about 20 feet. When the earth was filled against these the weight was so great that the planks in a number of places were broken, allowing the new ground to fall out and onto the street.

Yesterday the city commissioner had a fence erected along the front of the embankment, but it is hardly likely that it will be strong enough to hold the weight.

The residents of the vicinity claim they have not been treated fairly in the matter, saying a "penny wise and pound foolish" policy has been pursued all the way through. They hold that had the engineer ordered the erection of a stone wall there in the beginning, it would have been an economical plan, as it will doubtless cost the city many hundreds of dollars more to build the retaining walls after the fill has been made.

The hauling of dirt is being continued, and to the present it is estimated that several hundred wagon-loads have been deposited there. Those familiar with the present methods used say that at the first wet spell many tons of the earth will fall through the temporary obstruction, necessitating the handling of the stuff again.

MANY WITNESSES

Examined in the Case of J. Frank Rowe Against Homer Householder.

The forcible detention case in which J. Frank Rowe was the plaintiff and Homer Householder the defendant, and which occupied all of yesterday morning and part of this morning in Justice McCarron's court, was one of the hardest fought in a local court for some time.

One of the unusual features of the case was the introduction of evidence by the plaintiff's attorney to impeach Householder's testimony. The decision was reserved until Monday morning.

An action in the same court has been brought by Householder against Rowe for $50, which is claimed to be due for labor. It will be tried next Tuesday.

SET FOR MONDAY

Three Cases Against Allen Hargreaves Will Be Hotly Contested.

The cases in which Allen Hargreaves is the defendant and Louise Hargreaves and Walter Watkins the plaintiffs will be tried in Justice McCarron's court next Monday and promise to be hotly contested.

Louise Hargreaves, who is the defendant's wife, alleges abandonment. Watkins is Hargreaves' brother-in-law and charges the defendant with assault and carrying concealed weapons. Attorney Hollis Grosshans represents the plaintiffs and M. J. McGarry the defendant.

A BAD BREAK DOWN

Load of Land on Track Compelled Street Railway Patrons to Transfer.

A teamster hauling sand from the vicinity of Walker had a breakdown while crossing the tracks of the East Liverpool street railway yesterday afternoon and traffic was delayed for some time. The front axle broke, allowing the wagon, which was heavily laden with sand, to fall on the tracks. Passengers were compelled to transfer for almost two hours and the baggage car was unable to make its regular trips.

HAIR FLEW

Irate Females Tried to Snatch Each Other Bald—Fierce Struggle.

A hair pulling match took place between two females at noon today in the vicinity of the Cartwright pottery, which is said to have been fierce while it lasted. The match was stopped before either of the belligerents was made bald.

PROPERTY SOLD

A Business Block to be Erected in Mulberry Street, East End.

The Jacob Bottenburg property on Mulberry street was yesterday sold to J. C. Mushrush. Mr. Mushrush will erect a business block on the property.

DR. BEARDSLEY TO TALK.

Dr. Beardsley will deliver an address to the Sunday school scholars of the Second United Presbyterian church tomorrow morning. The occasion is the regular rally day service, and the talk of Dr. Beardsley promises to be an interesting one.

AN AFTERNOON TEA.

An afternoon tea was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Pope, Calcutta street, yesterday. Ninety-eight guests were present, and the time was very pleasantly spent from 2 to 6.

The British Boat Led by 150 Yards Soon After the Race Opened.

WIND WAS ELEVEN KNOTS

And the Contest Opened With Indications in Favor of an Interesting Race Today—Progress of the Yachts From the Start.

New York, Sept. 28.—(Special)—The great yacht race is on, with the prospect that conditions will make the contest today a decisive one.

As the two boats neared the starting line the wind was reported blowing at the rate of 11 knots.

The start was made promptly, the official time being reported as follows:

Shamrock, 11:04; Columbia, 11:06.

A short time afterward the Shamrock was reported 150 yards in the lead and doing great windward work.

The next bulletin reported the wind increasing and the Shamrock gaining slightly.

The Shamrock turned the outer mark at 1:24; the Columbia at 1:25.

Official time of turning was Shamrock 1:25:12; Columbia 1:25:53.

OPENING FOOTBALL GAME

Cathedral Lyceum Team And East Liverpool Play on Monday.

The strong Cathedral Lyceum football team will be here Monday to battle with the home team at the West End park.

It will be the opening of the football season in this city which this year promises to be a very prosperous one. Football is becoming popular here, and it is said that East Liverpool will be represented by a team that will have few equals in this part of the country. The lineup of the home team Monday will contain several substitutes, as several of the old players are not yet in condition to play. The two teams will lineup as follows:

Proposed by a National Association
Which Was Formed at Canton.

HAS BEEN INCORPORATED

And the Incorporators Include Judge
Day And Other Cantonions of Prominence—McKinley's K. of P.
Lodge Memorial Services.

Columbus, Sept. 28.—(Special)—The incorporation papers of the McKinley National Memorial association, with headquarters at Canton, reached the office of the secretary of state yesterday. The purposes of the association are for "the erection and maintenance, at Canton, O., of a suitable memorial to William McKinley, late president of the United States, and raising the necessary funds for said purposes; and after fully providing for the same the surplus of such funds, if any, shall be devoted to such memorial as may be provided for the late president at Washington, D. C."

The incorporators are James H. Robertson, mayor of the city of Canton; Judge William R. Day, former secretary of state in President McKinley's cabinet; Attorney William A. Lynch, Hon. John C. Welty and Frank C. Case, all of Canton. The articles of incorporation are in Judge Day's handwriting.

Champion lodge, Knights of Pythias, of this city, of which President McKinley was an active member, will hold memorial services in honor of the late president next Thursday evening. Other lodges will be invited to participate in the event. Major McKinley was initiated in Champion lodge while filling the office of governor of this state. Daniel Bold, of Calcutta, was arrested last night by Patrolman Woods, charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct. When taken before the mayor this morning Daniel did not appear to be half as bold as he was last night. He told his honor that he was guilty as charged and a fine of $2 and costs was assessed. Daniel didn't happen to have the necessary cash with him, and now languishes in an iron cage waiting on a friend to come to his assistance.

There were no other arrests last night, and business at police court has once again lapsed into a state of quietude.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD

Established By a Pacing Team at the Fair at Can-field.

Lisbon, Sept. 28.—(Special)—At the Canfield fair, which was closed yesterday, a world's racing record was established. Nichol and Sid Scott, owned and driven by Brose McMahon, of Canfield, together paced an exhibition mile on a half-mile track to bike four wheeler in 2:12. The same team has held the record since last year at 2:13. A Canadian team claimed the honor on a record of 2:12½.

MAY PROVE COSTLY

Residents Say Sheridan Avenue Fill
Was Not Started Right.

It is likely the filling being done along Sheridan avenue near the Greenwood brewery will cost the city a great deal more than the amount of the engineer's original estimate.

This is mainly due to the fact that the work was not started right. In the beginning, before any dirt was deposited there, a number of posts were placed along the avenue and planks laid on the inside to the height of about 20 feet. When the earth was filled against these the weight was so great that the planks in a number of places were broken, allowing the new ground to fall out and onto the street.

Yesterday the city commissioner had a fence erected along the front of the embankment, but it is hardly likely that it will be strong enough to hold the weight.

The residents of the vicinity claim they have not been treated fairly in the matter, saying a "penny wise and pound foolish" policy has been pursued all the way through. They hold that had the engineer ordered the erection of a stone wall there in the beginning, it would have been an economical plan, as it will doubtless cost the city many hundreds of dollars more to build the retaining walls after the fill has been made.

The hauling of dirt is being continued, and to the present it is estimated that several hundred wagon-loads have been deposited there. Those familiar with the present methods used say that at the first wet spell many tons of the earth will fall through the temporary obstruction, necessitating the handling of the stuff again.

MANY WITNESSES

Examined in the Case of J. Frank
Rowe Against Homer
Householder.

The forcible detention case in which J. Frank Rowe was the plaintiff and Homer Householder the defendant, and which occupied all of yesterday morning and part of this morning in Justice McCarron's court, was one of the hardest fought in a local court for some time.

One of the unusual features of the case was the introduction of evidence by the plaintiff's attorney to impeach Householder's testimony. The decision was reserved until Monday morning.

An action in the same court has been brought by Householder against Rowe for $50, which is claimed to be due for labor. It will be tried next Tuesday.

SET FOR MONDAY

Three Cases Against Allen Har-
greaves Will Be Hotly Contested.

The cases in which Allen Hargreaves is the defendant and Louise Hargreaves and Walter Watkins the plaintiffs will be tried in Justice McCarron's court next Monday and promise to be hotly contested.

Louise Hargreaves, who is the defendant's wife, alleges abandonment.

Watkins is Hargreaves' brother-in-law and charges the defendant with assault and carrying concealed weapons. Attorney Hollis Grosshans represents the plaintiffs and M. J. McGarry the defendant.

A BAD BREAK DOWN

Load of Land on Track Compelled
Street Railway Patrons to Transfer.

A teamster hauling sand from the vicinity of Walker had a breakdown while crossing the tracks of the East Liverpool street railway yesterday afternoon and traffic was delayed for some time. The front axle broke, allowing the wagon, which was heavily laden with sand, to fall on the tracks. Passengers were compelled to transfer for almost two hours and the baggage car was unable to make its regular trips.

HAIR FLEW

Irate Females Tried to Snatch Each
Other Bald—Fierce Struggle.

A hair pulling match took place between two females at noon today in the vicinity of the Cartwright pottery, which is said to have been fierce while it lasted. The match was stopped before either of the belligerents was made bald.

PROPERTY SOLD

A Business Block to be Erected in Mulberry Street, East End.

The Jacob Bottenburg property on Mulberry street was yesterday sold to J. C. Mushrush. Mr. Mushrush will erect a business block on the property.

Dr. Beardsley to Talk.

Dr. Beardsley will deliver an address to the Sunday school scholars of the Second United Presbyterian church tomorrow morning. The occasion is the regular rally day service, and the talk of Dr. Beardsley promises to be an interesting one.

An Afternoon Tea.

An afternoon tea was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Pope, Calcutta street, yesterday. Ninety-eight guests were present, and the time was very pleasantly spent from 2 to 6.

Opened.

WIND WAS ELEVEN KNOTS

And the Contest Opened With Indications in Favor of an Interesting
Race Today—Progress of the Yachts From the Start.

New York, Sept. 28.—(Special)—The great yacht race is on, with the prospect that conditions will make the contest today a decisive one.

As the two boats neared the starting line the wind was reported blowing at the rate of 11 knots.

The start was made promptly, the official time being reported as follows:

Shamrock, 11:04; Columbia, 11:06.

A short time afterward the Shamrock was reported 150 yards in the lead and doing great windward work.

The next bulletin reported the wind increasing and the Shamrock gaining slightly.

The Shamrock turned the outer mark at 1:24; the Columbia at 1:25.

Official time of turning was Shamrock 1:25:12; Columbia 1:25:53.

OPENING FOOTBALL GAME

Cathedral Lyceum Team And East
Liverpool Play on Monday.

The strong Cathedral Lyceum football team will be here Monday to battle with the home team at the West End park.

It will be the opening of the football season in this city which this year promises to be a very prosperous one. Football is becoming popular here, and it is said that East Liverpool will be represented by a team that will have few equals in this part of the country. The lineup of the home team Monday will contain several substitutes, as several of the old players are not yet in condition to play. The two teams will lineup as follows:

| Guards. | Cathedrals. |
| Godwin.....Left end.... | Hurney.. |

Dr. C. B. Ogden Captures More Copperheads With Great Ease.

Dr. C. B. Ogden, while driving back of Chester yesterday, came upon a large copperhead, which he succeeded in capturing alive. He soon found and captured another, and then added a blue racer. All of the snakes, in addition to the one captured a few days ago, are on exhibition at Larkins' drug store.

A Well Kept Secret.

The fact has just been made public that Mrs. Anna Valentine, a well known lady of this city, and John Forbes, an East End liveryman, were married some time ago in Youngstown. The secret was so well kept that not even the immediate relatives were aware of it until told yesterday. The couple will make their home in the East End.

Able to Return Home.

Phil Calvin, the conductor of the East Liverpool street railway who had his right ankle broken at Wellsville two weeks ago, left yesterday for his home near Negley.

UGLY CHARGES

MADE AGAINST A CLEVELAND M. E. MINISTER.

Dr. J. F. Fisher, Former Presiding Elder, Is Accused of False Pretenses.

Akron, Sept. 28.—Rev. J. C. Smith pastor of the Grace M. E. church, of this city, was made a member of a committee at the recent East Ohio conference of the M. E. churches, which had for its object the consideration of charges against Rev. Dr. John F. Fisher, of Cleveland. The charges were made at the conference and are as follows:

"That he, J. F. Fisher, made personal subscriptions to Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Cleveland, to Kinsman street, and to Mars Hill, and took the money to pay the same from the funds derived from the sale of the Unionville church, which fund was not available until five years after the sale of the property, which time had not expired when he used the funds for said payment, thus giving money under false pretenses and at the same time violating paragraph 314 of our book of discipline."

Dr. Fisher is superintendent of the industrial home in Cleveland, and was formerly presiding elder of the Cleveland district.

Dr. Fisher, in a signed statement, declares that the action of the conference was brought about through unfair means, and was the work of men who have been persecuting him for a year or more. Dr. Fisher further charges that the statements made in complaints at the conference are untrue, and says that if the author is discovered he may be expelled from the church. He also declares in his statement that the men who are persecuting him are doing so because he frustrated their plans when he was presiding elder.

ATTACKED BY A DEER

Woman at Mt. Vernon Knocked Down and Severely Injured.

Mt. Vernon, Sept. 28.—A large buck deer in the zoo at Lake Hiawatha park broke out of his pen yesterday, and created much excitement. He attacked Mrs. B. F. Kunkle, knocking her to the ground and goring her several times in the right arm and leg. The woman was also badly bruised about the body. She was rescued after some difficulty by the zoo keeper, Jackson Walker.

The manager ordered the deer's antlers sawed off as soon as he was captured.

A NEW PASTOR

Mr. Oscar L. Owens, of Rochester, N. Y., to Come to the Baptist Church.

The First Baptist church of this city, after having extended a unanimous call to Mr. Oscar L. Owens, of Rochester, N. Y., was much gratified last night to receive the following letter of acceptance:

To the First Baptist Church, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Dear Brethren:—I have been officially notified of your recent action, inviting me to become your minister. Having carefully looked over the field, I am convinced there are great opportunities for doing good and rich rewards for every faithful effort. Believing I am guided by the Divine Spirit, I accept your invitation, to begin work Oct. 1, 1901. Asking your prayers that the relations of minister and people may be blessed to the glory of Christ, I am faithfully yours,

OSCAR L. OWENS.

Mr. Owens is a young man possessing all the vigor, zeal and reserve power qualifying him for the work. He comes well recommended by the Rev. Dr. A. H. Strong, president of Rochester Theological seminary, N. Y., of which institution Mr. Owens is a graduate, class of 1901. He is a Virginian and full of southern hospitality. He is also a graduate of Richmond college, Richmond, Va., and for the last three years of his course in the college held the important position of medical and athletic director. Mr. Owens excels not only in athletics but in scholarship, as is evidenced by his graduation from both the college and university with high honors. The Baptists feel that they are to be congratulated in securing Mr. Owens, and they are confident that under his leadership the church will prosper and become a factor in the religious life of the city.

The new minister comes to succeed Mr. W. H. Beynon, who has been in the field for the past three months. Mr. Beynon will preach his farewell sermon on next Sunday evening. On Monday morning he will leave for Chicago university, where he intends to pursue a course in the divinity school.

Verdict For Defendants.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 28.—In the case of the Mosier heirs vs. the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co., Judge Bechtel directed the jury to find for the defendant. The case involved the ownership of coal lands in Tamaqua, Pa., and the Panther Creek valley, said to be worth many millions of dollars.

His Life Threatened.

Warren, Sept. 28.—Walter Zahniser, of Warren, received a letter threatening his life, and saying there is $1,000 for his dead body. The letter is signed D. C. S. A. Zahniser is ignorant of the cause, and says he does not know the writer, whose letter was mailed here without cause.

UGLY CHARGES

MADE AGAINST A CLEVELAND
M. E. MINISTER.Dr. J. F. Fisher, Former Presiding
Elder, is Accused of False Pretenses.

Akron, Sept. 28.—Rev. J. C. Smith, pastor of the Grace M. E. church, of this city, was made a member of a committee at the recent East Ohio conference of the M. E. churches, which had for its object the consideration of charges against Rev. Dr. John F. Fisher, of Cleveland. The charges were made at the conference and are as follows:

"That he, J. F. Fisher, made personal subscriptions to Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Cleveland, to Kinsman street, and to Mars Hill, and took the money to pay the same from the funds derived from the sale of the Unionville church, which fund was not available until five years after the sale of the property, which time had not expired when he used the funds for said payment, thus giving money under false pretenses and at the same time violating paragraph 314 of our book of discipline."

Dr. Fisher is superintendent of the industrial home in Cleveland, and was formerly presiding elder of the Cleveland district.

Dr. Fisher, in a signed statement, declares that the action of the conference was brought about through unfair means, and was the work of men who have been persecuting him for a year or more. Dr. Fisher further charges that the statements made in complaints at the conference are untrue, and says that if the author is discovered he may be expelled from the church. He also declares in his statement that the men who are persecuting him are doing so because he has frustrated their plans when he was presiding elder.

ON A FARM, NEAR AKRON, O

Bodies Were Found by a Neighbor
Who Went to the Well to Get Water—One Boy Evidently Fought Hard For Life.

Cleveland, Sept. 28.—The small town of Little York, a station on the line of the Akron, Bedford and Cleveland railway line, about 15 miles south of this city, was the scene of a terrible tragedy.

Mrs. Perry Curtis, the wife of a farmer, 38 years old, drowned her four small children in a well and then committed suicide by jumping in herself. Her husband, Perry Curtis, was in Cleveland with a load of potatoes, and knew nothing of the tragedy until he read an account of it in the newspapers.

Following are the names and ages of the dead:

The Dead.

Mrs. Perry Curtis, 38 years.
Rosa Curtis, 2 years.
Anna Curtis, 4 years.
Harry Curtis, 5 years.
Harold Scuder, 9 years.
The latter was Mrs. Curtis' stepson.

Mrs. Curtis was released from the Massillon insane asylum recently cured, and it is thought she was suffering a relapse when she committed the terrible deed.

Before leaving home, Curtis requested Eugene Roberts, a neighbor to milk his cows. Roberts, on arriving at the Curtis farm, attempted to draw some water from the well. To his horror, he found it literally filled with dead bodies.

The bodies were removed from the well as soon as possible and viewed by the county coroner. The body of Harold, the oldest boy, was terribly bruised. He had evidently made a desperate struggle to save himself. It is believed he was dead before being thrown into the well.

CONDITIONS AGAIN NORMAL.

More Activity in Pig Iron Than Since the Strike Began—Tide Still Rising.

New York, Sept. 28.—R. G. Dan's Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

Normal conditions have been fully restored in the distribution of merchandise, the placing of delayed orders stimulating the few lines that appeared to halt. One of the most gratifying features of the business situation is the pronounced preference for the better grades of goods, clearly indicating the improved financial condition of consumers. Resumption of work has progressed rapidly in the steel industry since the settlement of the labor controversy, and there is little discord between employer and employee in other lines. Stability of prices, without inflation, is the rule, except where the unusual size of crops introduces a special factor.

Steel production is now progressing at nearly the average rate. There are interruptions and delays through inability to secure special lines of material, and higher prices are quoted for both steel and iron bars, steel billets and some other shapes. In pig iron there was the greatest activity since the strike began, most brands reaching higher prices. Sales of 35,600 tons Bessemer at Valley furnaces were reported, equal to $16 delivered at Pittsburgh. Other large orders were under negotiation, and producers look for a rising market. Higher prices for billets were partially nominal, owing to the impossibility of securing deliveries, but a free movement is anticipated shortly. Record-breaking output of steel rails is practically assured for 1901, and the new year will open with an unparalleled volume of business on the books. Plates and structural material are very strong.

Wool is quiet, but firm.

Steadiness in quotations of corn at the present high level is all that producers could desire. Making full allowance for the smaller yield, and the decrease in exports, which has thus far been greater proportionately, there does not appear to be satisfactory reason for the rise of 15 cents over last year's figures and 25 cents over the price at this date in 1899. Shipments from the Atlantic coast for the week were 728,020 bushels, against 560,018 last year, and 2,954,477 two years ago. A heavier movement is expected, owing to larger buying for foreign account, secured through low rates for transportation. Wheat is well sustained and still better prices are promised by the heavy export movement, which from all United States ports for the week reached 8,268,413 bushels, flour included, against 3,557,482 last year, and 4,605,362 in 1899. Western receipts of 2,292,456 bushels exceed even the liberal shipments in 1900 of 6,954,777 bushels.

Failures for the week numbered 227 in the United States, against 204 last year, and 31 in Canada, against 18 last year.

MARKET WAS PROFESSIONAL.

But It Ended Strong on Friday—Some of the Features.

New York, Sept. 28.—Professional operators in stocks had the market pretty much to themselves Friday, but they found various matters of encouragement. The discouragement of the bears, with all the bad news in sight disposed of, was correspondingly great, and their buying to cover their shorts was an important influence. The uncertain fluctuations of the copper stocks in the early dealings kept the market unsettled, but the pressure of liquidation in them, as well as elsewhere in the market, was materially lightened, and they shared in the late general improvement of the market. A sharp rally in the price of spot copper in London had an important bearing not only on the status of these stocks in the speculative market, but on the copper trade outlook. It was reported that the Amalgamated Copper company was supporting the spot copper market in London. Whatever the cause of the rally, Thursday's contention that copper could be imported at a profit was disposed of, and the fear that the Amalgamated company would have to cut the price of its product was less acute. The stock sold ex-dividend and more than recovered it, but closed with a net gain of only 1 1/4. The recent notable buying of the Vanderbilts was resumed, the conviction growing that an early plan of merger would be announced. New York Central rose 1/2 and the junior Vanderbilt group from 1 to 5/8. In the liberal speculative mood, Delaware and Hudson, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, and probably some of the more obscure railroad stocks that moved during the day, were embraced in the plan by the faith of operators. A very large number of inconspicuous stocks were made active at advances all the way from 1 to 7/8. The coalers and trunk lines responded early to the influence of the Vanderbilt movement, and the leading specialties, including the various steel stocks and the local tractions, showed evidence of strength, but it was not until late in the day that the recent leaders of the market among the grangers, Pacifics and southwesterners moved strongly upward. The level of prices on the day showed an average advance of near a point. The promise of a favorable bank statement helped the late strength of the market.

There was a good demand for railroad bonds, which were slightly irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,255,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Cholera in India.

People everywhere are acquainted with the remarkable cures of milder forms of bowel complaints effected by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is not generally known, however, that this remedy has proved very successful in the treatment of Asiatic Cholera and is now sold and used all over India. Mrs. Sd. L. Hiscocks writing from Claer Road, Bynulla, India, says: "I have used a good many bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found it invaluable as a cure as well as a preventive of cholera. So far I have never known it to fail if given in the early stages." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

WHAT has been your experience in buying unimproved property? Has it been an easy task to get streets graded and paved, sidewalks laid, sewer, water, gas and electric light, street cars, etc., etc? Is it not more satisfactory and desirable to purchase a lot where all the improvements have been made and at prices which are no higher than the unimproved property now being offered? Our reason for offering you this property at such low prices and easy terms, is to give our customers an opportunity to make money on every purchase, thus sharing the profits.

We can sell you a house and lot ready for occupancy or a lot on which to build your house.

The recent notable buying of the Vanderbilts was resumed, the conviction growing that an early plan of merger would be announced. New York Central rose 3/4 and the junior Vanderbilt group from 1 to 5 1/2. In the liberal speculative mood, Delaware and Hudson, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, and probably some of the more obscure railroad stocks that moved during the day, were embraced in the plan by the faith of operators. A very large number of inconspicuous stocks were made active at advances all the way from 1 to 7 1/2. The coals and trunk lines responded early to the influence of the Vanderbilt movement, and the leading specialties, including the various steel stocks and the local tractions, showed evidence of strength, but it was not until late in the day that the recent leaders of the market among the grangers, Pacifics and southwesterners moved strongly upward. The level of prices on the day showed an average advance of near a point. The promise of a favorable bank statement helped the late strength of the market.

There was a good demand for railroad bonds, which were slightly irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,255,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Cholera in India.

People everywhere are acquainted with the remarkable cures of milder forms of bowel complaints effected by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is not generally known, however, that this remedy has proved very successful in the treatment of Asiatic Cholera and is now sold and used all over India. Mrs. Sd. L. Hiscocks writing from Claer Road, Byculla, India, says: "I have used a good many bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found it invaluable as a cure as well as a preventive of cholera. So far I have never known it to fail if given in the early stages." For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

WHAT has been your experience in buying unimproved property? Has it been an easy task to get streets graded and paved, sidewalks laid, sewer, water, gas and electric light, street cars, etc., etc? Is it not more satisfactory and desirable to purchase a lot where all the improvements have been made and at prices which are no higher than the unimproved property now being offered? Our reason for offering you this property at such low prices and easy terms, is to give our customers an opportunity to make money on every purchase, thus sharing the profits.

We can sell you a house and lot ready for occupancy or a lot on which to build your house.

The board of health and the city council are again to take up the garbage question. They ought to be able to settle it this time so that it will stay settled for many years. The sanitary officers who went to Youngstown were much impressed with the system in use there for disposing of garbage, and it is said they will recommend that this city own its plant, as Youngstown does, and operate it in a systematic and economical manner. This undoubtedly would be best, if the city's financial status were such as to warrant the outlay at present. But if the old furnace, as is claimed, can do the same work that will be required of the new one, why not economize by purchasing that? The statement is made and emphasized that the Youngstown furnace destroys garbage only, and if East Liverpool gets one like it, other kinds of refuse will have to be disposed of by other means. So that the settlement of the garbage question only settles a part of the sanitary problem that is to be solved. One thing the authorities should certainly do, and that is to make and enforce regulations, like those in effect in Youngstown and in all other cities that have ever dealt successfully with the subject, requiring garbage to be deposited in closed receptacles and kept from polluting the air while it is awaiting transportation to the furnaces. One does not need to be a sanitary expert to recognize the folly and the danger, as well as the intolerable nuisance, of the practice prevalent in East Liverpool of using uncovered boxes, barrels and tubs instead of airtight garbage cans. The whole city is interested in seeing the problem now before the health board and council wisely and quickly solved.

Foot ball games will engross a good deal of attention for the next two months. It is a game which has been growing steadily in public favor for several years, and it is plainly evident that it has come to stay. That being the case, the fetters which render it dangerous to life or limb should be eliminated by every possible means. If the strict rules of the game are adhered to, foot ball is no more perilous than other games. It is said it is always the over-enthusiastic amateurs and never the veteran players who get hurt. Those who are learning the game should not overlook the importance of learning caution at the same time. However strenuous and manly a sport may be, the public should not encourage it if it is liable to involve broken limbs, broken collar bones and other permanent or possibly fatal injuries to its participants. The devotees of the game have it in their own power to make it good or evil. They must make it good if they expect to win approval.

President Theodore Roosevelt is unable to discard all at once the breezy and democratic ways that characterized Teddy Roosevelt, the rough rider. He spurs body guards and detectives and goes about Washington with as much freedom and as little ostentation as the most obscure department clerk. The other day he barely escaped being hit by a rapidly moving express wagon, and it is said he might have been run over by a messenger boy on a bicycle had not the rider ordered him out of the way. The president is a dignified gentleman, but he has a healthy American contempt for unnecessary ceremony. Lincoln and Grant showed the same fondness for the simple ways of the fathers, and people thought the more of them for it.

The more the Philippine islands are investigated the more gloomy are the reports of their wonderful resources. A timber expert from Bangor, Me.—where what is not known about logs is not worth knowing—says there are single trees of precious wood on the island of Luzon that are worth $10,000. Woodmen are not likely to spare such trees, but they will be foolish indeed if they don't take good care of the sprouts.

Pittsburg, after long years, has captured the base ball pennant and the man who doesn't want to hear the national game discussed all the time will have to put cotton in his ears or quit Pittsburg.

The prolongation of the Boer war surpasses all expectations. Still it doesn't beat the Dutch.

Czolgosz has discovered too late that he has a conscience.

It has been decided to present for the opening performance of the Irene Myers company at the Grand Monday evening. Charles E. POTTERY NEWS

A Canonsburg, Pa., report says: The arrivals for the past week are: W. Allison, Mr. Elliott, William Harvey and Thomas Mann, kilnmen, from Wheeling; Mr. Redding and Lowrie Travis, kilnmen, from East Liverpool; Bart Brown, kilnman, from East Palestine; Sam Ward, dishmaker, from Wellsville, and Chaw Bone Bannon, presser, and Charles Fowler, 5 and 6-inch jiggersmen, East Liverpool. The irrepressible Tommy McKeone has accepted a bench sticking-up.

The building of the Electrical Porcelain works in the East End has been completed and the work of placing in the machinery was commenced today. They expect to place the plant in operation in one week. The kiln will be completed Monday.

James Carbury and C. Button have resigned their positions as kiln placers at the C. C. Thompson pottery, and left yesterday afternoon for Salem where they have accepted similar situations.

A movement is on foot to erect a monument to the memory of President McKinley in Sebring. It is expected the Sebring Bros. will assist this in a substantial manner.

Tes Dresden pottery has been idle for the past two days, there being no clay.

YELLED WITH TERROR.

CZOLGOSZ LOST ALL HIS BRAVADO AT SIGHT O PRISON.

Had to Be Dragged—Recovered His Composure—Sorry For Mrs. McKinley.

Amburn, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Czolgosz, President McKinley's murderer, in the custody of Sheriff Caldwell, of Erie county, and 21 deputies, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 a. m. yesterday. The prison is only about 50 yards from the depot. Awaiting the arrival of the train there was a crowd of about 200 people. Either for fear of the crowd, which was not very demonstrative, or from sight of the prison, Czolgosz's legs gave out, and two deputy sheriffs were compelled to practically carry the man into the prison. Inside the gate his condition became worse, and he was dragged up the stairs and into the main hall. He was placed in a sitting position on the bench while the handcuffs were being removed, but he fell over and moaned and groaned, evincing the most abject terror. As soon as the handcuffs were unlocked the man was dragged into the principal keeper's office. As in the case of all prisoners the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on a new suit of clothes.

Czolgosz Cried and Yelled. During this operation Czolgosz cried and yelled, making the prison corridors echo with evidence of his terror. The prison physician, Dr. John Gerin, examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in the condemned row, which he will occupy until he is taken to the electric chair. The doctor declared that the man was suffering from fright and terror, but said that he was shamming to some extent.

The collapse of the murderer was a surprise to everyone. En route from Buffalo he showed no indication of breaking down. He ate heartily of sandwiches and smoked cigars when not eating. He talked some and expressed his regret for his crime. "I am especially sorry for Mrs. McKinley," he reiterated his former statement that he had no accomplices and declared that he never had heard of the man under arrest in St. Louis, who claimed to have tied the handkerchief over his hand, concealing the pistol with which the president was shot. He says the handkerchief was not tied. He went behind the Temple of Music, arranged the handkerchief so as to hide the weapon and then took his place in the crowd.

To Jailer Mitchell he sent this message to his father: "Tell him I am sorry I left such a bad name for him." Czolgosz was in normal condition yesterday afternoon and seemed to have fully recovered from his collapse.

Keeping at It.

There is a very old but very good story about a boy who was engaged one winter day in putting a ton of coal into a cellar. His only implement was a small fire shovel. Noticing this, a benevolent old gentleman expressed surprise and commiseration. "My son," said the gentleman, "you surely do not expect to put in all that coal with that little shovel?" "Oh, yes, I do," replied the boy cheerfully. "All I have to do is to keep at it."

There is a lesson in this story for young and old, and it is exemplified in the lives of the great men of the world. It is a mistake to suppose that the best work of the world is done by people of great strength and many opportunities. "Keeping at it" is the secret of success. —Exchange.

Left Handed Medicine.

An Atchison druggist tells this story and declares that it is true: He had tonsillitis, but did not send for a doctor, as he knew he would be all right as soon as the swelling "broke." But his wife was worried and insisted on sending for a doctor. When the doctor arrived, he looked through his medicine case, and said he had nothing suitable for the patient; that the medicine he had was for the right side, whereas the swelling in the throat was on the left side. Then he hurried away to get his left handed medicine.—Atchison Globe.

POTTERY NEWS

A Canonsburg, Pa., report says: The arrivals for the past week are: W. Allison, Mr. Elliott, William Harvey and Thomas Mann, kilnmen, from Wheeling; Mr. Redding and Lowrie Travis, kilnmen, from East Liverpool; Bart Brown, kilnman, from East Palestine; Sam Ward, dishmaker, from Wellsville, and Chaw Bone Bannon, presser, and Charles Fowler, 5 and 6-inch jiggersmen, East Liverpool. The irrepressible Tommy McKeone has accepted a bench sticking-up.

The building of the Electrical Porcelain works in the East End has been completed and the work of placing in the machinery was commenced today. They expect to place the plant in operation in one week. The kiln will be completed Monday.

James Carbury and C. Button have resigned their positions as kiln placers at the C. C. Thompson pottery, and left yesterday afternoon for Salem where they have accepted similar situations.

A movement is on foot to erect a monument to the memory of President McKinley in Sebring. It is expected the Sebring Bros. will assist this in a substantial manner.

Tes Dresden pottery has been idle for the past two days, there being no clay.

YELLED WITH TERROR.

CZOLGOSZ LOST ALL HIS BRAVADO AT SIGHT O PRISON.

Had to Be Dragged—Recovered His Composure—Sorry For Mrs. McKinley.

Anbun, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Czolgosz, President McKinley's murderer, in the custody of Sheriff Caldwell, of Erie county, and 21 deputies, arrived in Anbun at 3:15 a. m. yesterday. The prison is only about 50 yards from the depot. Awaiting the arrival of the train there was a crowd of about 200 people. Either for fear of the crowd, which was not very demonstrative, or from sight of the prison, Czolgosz's legs gave out, and two deputy sheriffs were compelled to practically carry the man into the prison. Inside the gate his condition became worse, and he was dragged up the stairs and into the main hall. He was placed in a sitting position on the bench while the handcuffs were being removed, but he fell over and moaned and groaned, evincing the most abject terror. As soon as the handcuffs were unlocked the man was dragged into the principal keeper's office. As in the case of all prisoners the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on a new suit of clothes.

Czolgosz Cried and Yelled. During this operation Czolgosz cried and yelled, making the prison corridors echo with evidence of his terror. The prison physician, Dr. John Gerin, examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in the condemned row, which he will occupy until he is taken to the electric chair. The doctor declared that the man was suffering from fright and terror, but said that he was shamming to some extent.

The collapse of the murderer was a surprise to everyone. En route from Buffalo he showed no indication of breaking down. He ate heartily of sandwiches and smoked cigars when not eating. He talked some and expressed his regret for his crime.

"I am especially sorry for Mrs. McKinley," he reiterated his former statement that he had no accomplices and declared that he never had heard of the man under arrest in St. Louis, who claimed to have tied the handkerchief over his hand, concealing the pistol with which the president was shot. He says the handkerchief was not tied. He went behind the Temple of Music, arranged the handkerchief so as to hide the weapon and then took his place in the crowd.

To Jailer Mitchell he sent this message to his father:

"Tell him I am sorry I left such a bad name for him."

Czolgosz was in normal condition yesterday afternoon and seemed to have fully recovered from his collapse.

Keeping at It.

There is a very old but very good story about a boy who was engaged one winter day in putting a ton of coal into a cellar. His only implement was a small fire shovel. Noticing this, a benevolent old gentleman expressed surprise and commiseration.

"My son," said the gentleman, "you surely do not expect to put in all that coal with that little shovel?"

"Oh, yes, I do," replied the boy cheerfully. "All I have to do is to keep at it."

There is a lesson in this story for young and old, and it is exemplified in the lives of the great men of the world. It is a mistake to suppose that the best work of the world is done by people of great strength and many opportunities. "Keeping at it" is the secret of success. —Exchange.

Left Handed Medicine.

An Atchison druggist tells this story and declares that it is true: He had tonsillitis, but did not send for a doctor, as he knew he would be all right as soon as the swelling "broke." But his wife was worried and insisted on sending for a doctor. When the doctor arrived, he looked through his medicine case, and said he had nothing suitable for the patient; that the medicine he had was for the right side, whereas the swelling in the throat was on the left side. Then he hurried away to get his left handed medicine.—Atchison Globe.

WELLSVILLE

GAS PLANT ON FIRE

A Blaze at Wellsville Which Was Discovered And Stopped in Time.

Fire broke out about 5 o'clock in the cupola of the artificial gas plant. Engineer Joseph Davidson was the first to notice it, and it had then made considerable headway. Before it could be extinguished by the fire department considerable damage had been done to the inside of the cupola, but the engines were stopped only during the night.

Repairs are being made by the carpenters today and work went on as usual this forenoon.

The gas plant shut down permanently this afternoon. The fire had nothing to do with the stoppage. Patrons are now active in getting electric lights put in.

Social a Success.

The church social given at the Metropole last evening by the Lady Helpers of the Episcopal church was an enjoyable affair and a financial success. The literary and musical program was pleasing and well rendered.

Working Thirteen Hours a Day.

The shops of the C. & P., are rushed with work on hand, and all men are working 13 hours per day. They will continue to do so indefinitely.

MINOR NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.

J. G. Kountz yesterday bought quite a drove of fine beef cattle over in Hancock county, W. Va., and ferried them to the wharf here.

Miss David, Hill street, has returned from Alliance.

Mrs. Newton Turner and Miss Rena Turner went to Pittsburg today.

Charles Johnson, Main and Twelfth streets, is home from the Pan-American.

Mrs. W. B. Powell, of Arroyo, W. Va., and Miss Anna Mahan, are at the Metropole.

Mrs. Harry Thompson, of Pittsburg, who has been here some time, went to Cleveland last evening.

The business room of the new Kountz building in the public square will be occupied by the Starretts.

B. H. Morris, a cigar maker, residing on Hill street, but employed at Tarentum, Pa., will move to this city at an early date.

Frank Packer and family moved yesterday from Commerce street to property in Center street, where they are at home to their friends.

George Woodyard, wife and family left today for Salineville, to attend the funeral of Peter Brown, who died in a Cleveland hospital.

W. B. McCoy, of Ravenswood, W. Va., a prominent business man of that city, was here on business yesterday, settling up matters relative to the estate of his deceased mother, who had relatives in this city.

A Clever Woman's Answer.

"Do you not consider your husband the most graceless sinner in existence?"

This question was asked the wife of a gay Lothario by a rival for his affections while playing a game called "candor."

The stillness became intense and every pair of eyes grew rounder as those present looked from one woman to the other. It was the husband's voice that broke the silence.

"Your question is out of order, Beatrice," he said quietly. "It is a rule laid down in courts of law that a woman is not required to testify against her husband."

In the confusion that followed as the game broke up the man sought his wife's side. "What should you have replied to the query of the fair Beatrice if I had not come to your rescue so neatly?" he demanded.

"I should have said you were a sinner, yes, but a graceful rather than a graceless one."—Londoner's.

Poor Meekton.

"Henrietta," said Mr. Meekton, "do you remember the moonlit evening when I asked you to marry me?"

"I trust, Leonidas, that you are not going to become sentimental and silly."

"Not a bit of it. But I often recall the occasion with interest. I can never quite understand how I managed to talk so familiarly to you without seeming impertinent."—Washington Star.

SOUTH SIDE

OFF FOR TEXAS

Southside Boys Who Will Be Employed in the New Oil Fields.

Gus and Edward Stewart, of Hancock county, left this morning for Tipton, Tex., where they will be employed in the recently developed oil fields.

Gus Stewart has been in Texas for some time and recently returned to his old home in this section for a visit. He is a practical oil man, having been in the Texas field for several years. The brothers will locate in Texas permanently.

Badly Injured.

Joseph Hobbs today received word that his father-in-law, William McSwiggens, had been injured very badly, but none of the particulars were given. Mr. Hobbs left for the home of Mr. McSwiggens, which is four miles from Chester, this afternoon.

No Big Game Yet.

Word received from James Stewart and J. H. Maxwell state that they have arrived at the hunting grounds in the Cheat mountains, but at the time of writing they had been unable to scare up anything larger than a rabbit.

Cut His Hand.

Isaac Allison, the butcher, met with a painful accident this morning. He was engaged in cutting some steak when the knife slipped, inflicting a bad wound on the first finger of the right hand.

Material for the Mill.

A car of tinning pots and a car of cement were received at the mill this morning. Two sheet mill rolls were placed in operation today.

CHESTER NOTES.

One Way to Boil a Ham.

The following is the recipe of the famous John Chamberlin of Washington for boiling a ham:

"To boil a ham a la Chamberlin, the night before put the ham in a tub of cold water, fleshy part downward, skin part up. Next morning put the ham in a large kettle or pot of cold water to boil. Let the water get hot gradually and continue to cook the ham in a slow boil, scarcely more than a simmer. At the end of five hours take the ham out, throw the water out of the pot and fill it with fresh cold water. Put the ham back immediately and let it simmer or boil slowly five hours more. Then add, according to the size of your purse, a gallon of vinegar or a gallon of claret or burgundy or champagne; then simmer or boil for three hours more. Then take the ham off, skin it and put in a cool place. Next morning trim it and eat when you are ready.

"To prevent the ham from tearing or the water suddenly boiling too fast it is always safe to sew a piece of cotton cloth tightly around the ham so as to fit as close as a glove. This will keep the meat firm and guard against the neglect of the cook in letting the water boil too fast."—New York Herald.

St. Christopher.

The belief was that any one who looked at a representation of St. Christopher was safe for that day from an evil death. The saint was always portrayed of colossal size and is so painted at the entrance of most Spanish cathedrals that all may see him. None of the many carved figures of this saint approaches in size one which was removed from Notre Dame at Paris in 1785.

It was said that St. Christopher's original occupation was to carry people across a stream, and the legend is that once a child presented himself to be conveyed over. At first his weight was what might be expected from his infant years, but presently it began to increase and so went on till the ferryman was like to sink under his burden. The child then said: "Wonder not, my friend. I am Jesus, and you have the weight of the sins of the whole world on your back." Hence St. Christopher is represented carrying the infant Saviour across a river with the globe in his hand.

St. Christopher has an interesting place in the history of typography in consequence of a wood engraving of his figure, supposed to be of date about 1423, being the earliest known example of that art.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Good work—"whoop 'er up." Godwin made a clever catch of a high drive in the first inning.

None of the spectators could find reason for complaint. The game was all right.

Godwin's home run started the enthusiasm. It was a beauty, and no mistake.

The Painesville team is a hard one to beat. They play the game at all times for all there is in it.

Miller is a great fielder. He can run like a deer and a fly that gets away from him has to be a very wild one.

The Painesville players are nearly all good base runners, and that is one great factor that counts in any contest.

once when Heckathorne went after a liner. Plays of this kind are often made by local pitchers, and there is no excuse for such goldfingering.

Rising used poor judgment once in the sixth inning when he threw home from left in an effort to catch a runner who could have watched in and beaten the ball. Davis allowed the ball to get past him and the man who had hit to left was allowed to reach third when he should have been held at first.

CHESTER

THE phenomenal growth of Chester is the talk of everybody—everything in Chester these days is hustle. The new Tin Plate Works is being more than doubled, and in a few days will be in operation, employing hundreds of skilled workmen, and paying out in wages one-fourth as much as all the potteries combined in East Liverpool, Ohio.

The Rolling Mill Land Company has just platted their second addition to Chester, consisting of one hundred and eight lots, and the same is now ready for sale. The addition is located just west of the mill, and east of the Melvina M. Gardner tract. On this tract fifty beautiful, modern houses are now being erected, each house being fitted up with gas, water and bath room. This addition will have all modern up-to-date improvements, such as graded streets, paved sidewalks, the purest water to be had in the Ohio valley, gas, electric light and a complete sewerage system. Nowhere in or around East Liverpool, or elsewhere is there such opportunities for investment or speculation as is presented here. Lots in this addition, with all of the foregoing improvements will sell as low as $500.00; 10 per cent. cash, and the balance on long time, with 6 per cent. interest.

With the factories now in operation, and those building when in full operation, will support a population of six thousand people.

This Company has sold over $50,000 worth of property in the past year and a half—and there has not been a single purchaser that has not made good money—and scores of them can sell, and have sold their lots for twice what they paid. The outlook today is brighter than ever before.

We also have lots in our old addition which we can sell for $200 and upwards.

In this new addition, houses as well as lots will be for sale on and after this publication. Look Chester over and see what we have to offer.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Good work—"whoop 'er up." Godwin made a clever catch of a high drive in the first inning.

None of the spectators could find reason for complaint. The game was all right.

Godwin's home run started the enthusiasm. It was a beauty, and no mistake.

The Painesville team is a hard one to beat. They play the game at all times for all there is in it.

Miller is a great fielder. He can run like a deer and a fly that gets away from him has to be a very wild one.

The Painesville players are nearly all good base runners, and that is one great factor that counts in any contest.

once when Heckathorne went after a liner. Plays of this kind are often made by local pitchers, and there is no excuse for such goldfingering.

Rising used poor judgment once in the sixth inning when he threw home from left in an effort to catch a runner who could have walked in and beaten the ball. Davis allowed the ball to get past him and the man who had hit to left was allowed to reach third when he should have been held at first.

CHESTER

THE phenomenal growth of Chester is the talk of everybody—everything in Chester these days is hustle. The new Tin Plate Works is being more than doubled, and in a few days will be in operation, employing hundreds of skilled workmen, and paying out in wages one-fourth as much as all the potteries combined in East Liverpool, Ohio.

The Rolling Mill Land Company has just platted their second addition to Chester, consisting of one hundred and eight lots, and the same is now ready for sale. The addition is located just west of the mill, and east of the Melvina M. Gardner tract. On this tract fifty beautiful, modern houses are now being erected, each house being fitted up with gas, water and bath room. This addition will have all modern up-to-date improvements, such as graded streets, paved sidewalks, the purest water to be had in the Ohio valley, gas, electric light and a complete sewerage system. Nowhere in or around East Liverpool, or elsewhere is there such opportunities for investment or speculation as is presented here. Lots in this addition, with all of the foregoing improvements will sell as low as $500 00; 10 per cent. cash, and the balance on long time, with 6 per cent. interest.

With the factories now in operation, and those building when in full operation, will support a population of six thousand people.

This Company has sold over $50,000 worth of property in the past year and a half—and there has not been a single purchaser that has not made good money—and scores of them can sell, and have sold their lots for twice what they paid. The outlook today is brighter than ever before.

We also have lots in our old addition which we can sell for $200 and upwards.

In this new addition, houses as well as lots will be for sale on and after this publication. Look Chester over and see what we have to offer.

SCHLEY CRITICISED

By Capt. McCalla, For His Conduct, While In Command of Flying Squadron.

HE DIDN'T HURRY TO SANTIAGO,

From Cienfuegos, With All Dispatch, as Ordered—McCalla Said He Could Have Coaled Marblehead, on Arrival Off Santiago.

Washington, Sept. 28.—In the Schley court of inquiry a letter was presented from Rear Admiral Sampson, asking to be allowed to be represented in the court by counsel, but the court refused to grant the request on the ground that "the court does not at this time regard you as a party to the case."

Among the witnesses were Lieutenant John Hood, who commanded the dispatch boat The Hawk during the Spanish war, and Captain Bowman D. McCalla, who was in command of the Marblehead.

Captain Wise was recalled to make verbal changes in the official copy of his testimony. He altered his previous statement concerning the order of the navy department of May 20, 1898, in which he was directed to "inform every vessel off Santiago that the flying squadron is off Cienfuegos," saying that he desired to correct his response to the court's question as to why this order was not carried out, by stating that it had been carried out.

"The flying squadron was ordered to proceed with all possible dispatch," he said, and added: "I did not desire to inform the commodore of the flying squadron of his own movements. The order was to inform commanders of the movements of the flying squadron."

The court then asked: Didn't Order Information Given.

"Did you direct Captain Sigbee to give Commodore Schley the information contained in the dispatch from the navy department regarding the whereabouts of the Spanish squadron?"

"I did not," Lieutenant Spencer S. Wood, who commanded the dispatch boat Dupont, was then called and continued his testimony, begun Thursday. His testimony was in part as follows:

Mr. Rayner resumed his cross-examination. The witness said that while off Cienfuegos he had been on picket duty two miles from shore on the night of May 22 and had been instructed to signal the squadron with two red lights in case the enemy's torpedo boats came out of the harbor.

Lieutenant John Hood, who during the war commanded the Hawk, was the next witness. His testimony was in part as follows: He said that on May 23 he had delivered dispatches from Admiral Sampson to Admiral Schley when the latter was off Cienfuegos.

"Commodore Schley read the dispatches and then turning to me said: 'Captain, Admiral Sampson wishes me to go to Santiago. I cannot do it.' I told Commodore Schley that the admiral certainly expected the squadron to leave the instant I arrived. Commodore Schley then said, in nearly these words: 'I am not at all satisfied that the Spaniards are not here in Cienfuegos.' He said that besides is ships wanted coal; that the Massachusetts, Texas and the Brooklyn wanted so many tons of coal, and that the day before Captain Sampson had sent him down the Iowa with only half her coal supply, so that he could not go anywhere; that it was useless to send ships down there only half filled with coal.

"I told Commodore Schley that I had passed the collier conveyed by a gunboat, only a little before daylight that morning, and it would certainly be there with at least four or five thousand tons of coal within two or three hours. We referred again to the belief of the Spaniards being in Cienfuegos and said that he had heard some of the firing about 40 miles from port, which he took to be a welcome to the Spanish squadron. He had also seen some smoke which he conceived to be the Spanish squadron and he believed they were there.

"I said to Commodore Schley then that the information which the admiral had considered as definite; I had no doubt but that the Spanish squadron was at Santiago.

Said Sampson Didn't Understand.

"Commodore Schley then said to me: 'Captain Sampson doesn't understand. He is not on the spot and cannot judge.' I also informed Commodore Schley that they certainly expected the squadron to leave immediately, and that I had verbal orders from the commander-in-chief which did not appear in my written orders, to remain with the Hawk alone at Cienfuegos after the squadron had left, and conduct a blockade for a day or two, or as long as my coal supply lasted."

The witness testified that the steamer Adula, in passing, had reported to the Brooklyn that a cable report had been received at Kingston on May 19, saying that the Spanish squadron was in the harbor at Santiago. Admiral Schley's report of this occurrence was also read, as was his statement discrediting the information, because he then believed the squadron to be in Cienfuegos harbor. All these reports have heretofore been published.

Captain Bowman H. McCalla, who commanded the Marblehead during the Spanish war, was called. His testimony was in part as follows:

Witness had first come into contact with the flying squadron on May 19, 1898. When he was proceeding from the south coast of Cuba to Key West he met the squadron on its way to Cuba. Witness said he had not been asked to come aboard the Brooklyn for the purpose of making a report on conditions in Cuba, but had made a full report to Captain Chadwick, Admiral Sampson's chief of staff, when he arrived at Key West. On this point he said:

"In addition to written reports of dispatches which I carried, I explained to the chief of staff the secret code which I had established with the Cubans near Cienfuegos. That was not done until I heard that Commodore Schley was proceeding to Cienfuegos."

"To whom, according to the best of your recollection, did you communicate that secret code of signals?"

"Only to Captain Chadwick, chief of staff."

"Did you make any written report respecting those signals?"

"Never. It was a secret code arranged by myself, and I did not wish any publicity to be given this code, because the Cubans might be betrayed by any publicity which would reach the Spanish government in Havana."

"Did you have any fear of betrayal of our own force in like manner?"

"I thought that was possible, of course; that was in my mind at the time."

His Return to Cienfuegos.

Captain McCalla told of his return to Cienfuegos on the 24th of May, with dispatches for Admiral Schley. He said:

"It had been reported authoritatively in Key West on the 19th of May, and when I sailed on the afternoon of the 21st of May, that the Spanish squadron was still at Santiago."

"And you communicated that information to Commodore Schley verbally?"

"Commodore Schley told me he thought the Spanish squadron was in Cienfuegos; that he had received newspapers from the steamer Adula, some days previous; that one of the newspapers contained a cable dispatch from Santiago, and from that he gathered that the Spanish force under Admiral Cervera might have sailed from Santiago in time to reach Cienfuegos just before the arrival of the force under his command. I said that I had brought arms, ammunition and dynamite for the Cuban camp to the westward and that if he would let me go I would find out at once whether they were in Cienfuegos. He immediately assented. I asked him if he had seen any lights on the beach. He said he had. I asked if he saw three. He said he had. I then said the lights were from Cuban vessels trying to communicate. I may have asked him if he saw three horses in line on the beach by day."

Cervera Was Not There.

Captain McCalla then related how he had gone ashore near Cienfuegos and found the Cubans drawn up in line. He gave them food and ammunition. He found that Cervera was not inside the harbor.

Captain McCalla said he sent the information obtained to Admiral Schley by the Eagle, signaling that vessel to proceed at full speed and report to the Brooklyn that Cervera was not in Cienfuegos. At that time witness said the Eagle could steam faster than the Marblehead. Later he came up with the Brooklyn.

"Did you go on board the Brooklyn?"

"I steamed under the quarter of the Brooklyn, and after some conversation with Commodore Schley I asked if he would like me to go on board. He said that he would. I went on board and of course confirmed the fact that Admiral Cervera's fleet was not in Cienfuegos. I saw then for the first time the set of instructions for Commodore Schley. During the conversation the commodore asked me to read the instructions, and after I had read them he asked me what I thought he had better do. Previous to this he had said that he could not coal off Santiago; that the English had demonstrated that ships could not coal at sea. He also said that if he returned to Key West he would be court-martialed. It was after this that he handed me the orders, which I read. After reading them I said: 'Commodore, I think you must return to Santiago, even if you do not stay there.'"

Further along he said that shortly afterwards the admiral said to him: 'This is a matter I shall have to decide myself and you may return to your ship.'

Schley Failed to Obey Order.

In reply to further questions, Captain McCalla said that no effort had been made while he was with the flying squadron off Cienfuegos to prevent the Spaniards from continuing the construction of earthworks, which he had been ordered to do. He said the Marblehead could have gone within range of their works, and that he had been told by a Cuban pilot that the water was deep under the bluffs. Captain McCalla said that the squadron had not proceeded with "all dispatch to Santiago."

The witness was asked if the Marblehead could have coaled on the afternoon and evening of May 26, when the flying squadron arrived off Santiago. He replied in the affirmative, but said that he had not considered the vessel in need of coal. He also said in reply to questions that he had not been at any time anxious or apprehensive concerning the coal supply of the Marblehead. He had, he said, coaled on the night of the 27th, at first by boats with bags, but after daylight on the 28th his vessel had gone alongside the collier. The reason why this had not been done in the beginning, he said, was that he had been apprehensive of injuring the guns of the Marblehead in the dark, the weather conditions having nothing to do with the precaution.

Captain McCalla said he had told Admiral Schley he could coal without difficulty at Cape Haytien. In reply to an explicit question the witness said that with a collier present he could not have anticipated any difficulty in remaining off Santiago for a considerable time.

In response to questions he next related briefly the bombardment of the Cristobal Colon on May 31. When asked what had been left undone to accomplish the destruction of that vessel, he replied that Admiral Schley had failed to use his entire force in making the attack.

Later the court adjourned.

"Never. It was a secret code arranged by myself, and I did not wish any publicity to be given this code, because the Cubans might be betrayed by any publicity which would reach the Spanish government in Havana."

"Did you have any fear of betrayal of our own force in like manner?"

"I thought that was possible, of course; that was in my mind at the time."

His Return to Cienfuegos. Captain McCalla told of his return to Cienfuegos on the 24th of May, with dispatches for Admiral Schley. He said:

"It had been reported authoritatively in Key West on the 19th of May, and when I sailed on the afternoon of the 21st of May, that the Spanish squadron was still at Santiago."

"And you communicated that information to Commodore Schley verbally?"

"Commodore Schley told me he thought the Spanish squadron was in Cienfuegos; that he had received newspapers from the steamer Adula, some days previous; that one of the newspapers contained a cable dispatch from Santiago, and from that he gathered that the Spanish force under Admiral Cervera might have sailed from Santiago in time to reach Cienfuegos just before the arrival of the force under his command. I said that I had brought arms, ammunition and dynamite for the Cuban camp to the westward and that if he would let me go I would find out at once whether they were in Cienfuegos. He immediately assented. I asked him if he had seen any lights on the beach. He said he had. I asked if he saw three. He said he had. I then said the lights were from Cubans trying to communicate. I may have asked him if he saw three horses in line on the beach by day."

Cervera Was Not There. Captain McCalla then related how he had gone ashore near Cienfuegos and found the Cubans drawn up in line. He gave them food and ammunition. He found that Cervera was not inside the harbor. Captain McCalla said he sent the information obtained to Admiral Schley by the Eagle, signaling that vessel to proceed at full speed and report to the Brooklyn that Cervera was not in Cienfuegos. At that time witness was steaming with only two boilers and the Eagle could steam faster than the Marblehead. Later he came up with the Brooklyn.

"Did you go on board the Brooklyn?"

"I steamed under the quarter of the Brooklyn, and after some conversation with Commodore Schley I asked if he would like me to go on board. He said that he would. I went on board and of course confirmed the fact that Admiral Cervera's fleet was not in Cienfuegos. I saw then for the first time the set of instructions for Commodore Schley. During the conversation the commodore asked me to read the instructions, and after I had read them he asked me what I thought he had better do. Previous to this he had said that he could not coal off Santiago; that the English had demonstrated that ships could not coal at sea. He also said that if he returned to Key West he would be court-martialed. It was after this that he handed me the orders, which I read. After reading them I said: 'Commodore, I think you must return to Santiago, even if you do not stay there.'"

Further along he said that shortly afterwards the admiral said to him: "This is a matter I shall have to decide myself and you may return to your ship."

Schley Failed to Obey Order. In reply to further questions, Captain McCalla said that no effort had been made while he was with the flying squadron off Cienfuegos to prevent the Spaniards from continuing the construction of earthworks, which he had been ordered to do. He said the Marblehead could have gone within range of their works, and that he had been told by a Cuban pilot that the water was deep under the bluffs. Captain McCalla said that the squadron had not proceeded with "all dispatch to Santiago."

The witness was asked if the Marblehead could have coaled on the afternoon and evening of May 26, when the flying squadron arrived off Santiago. He replied in the affirmative, but said that he had not considered the vessel in need of coal. He also said in reply to questions that he had not been at any time anxious or apprehensive concerning the coal supply of the Marblehead. He had, he said, coaled on the night of the 27th, at first by boats with bags, but after daylight on the 28th his vessel had gone alongside the collier. The reason why this had not been done in the beginning, he said, was that he had been apprehensive of injuring the guns of the Marblehead in the dark, the weather conditions having nothing to do with the precaution.

Captain McCalla said he had told Admiral Schley he could coal without difficulty at Cape Haytien. In reply to an explicit question the witness said that with a collier present he could not have anticipated any difficulty in remaining off Santiago for a considerable time.

In response to questions he next related briefly the bombardment of the Cristobal Colon on May 31. When asked what had been left undone to accomplish the destruction of that vessel, he replied that Admiral Schley had failed to use his entire force in making the attack.

Later the court adjourned.

TO MRS. M'KINLEY,

The Late President Left His Entire Estate--Will Filed
For Probate.

$1,000 ANNUITY TO MOTHER,

And at Her Death It Was to Go to
His Sister--Estate Estimated as Worth About $225,000 to $250,000,
Including $67,000 Insurance.

Canton, O., Sept. 28.—Secretary Cortelyou came here to assist Mrs. McKinley in disposing of matters connected with the late president's estate. He was driven to the McKinley home. After meeting Mrs. McKinley the question of filing the will was taken up. The trying task of reading it to her was undertaken by the faithful secretary. Mrs. McKinley made a heroic effort to bear up and succeeded in doing so, although the ordeal was difficult for her. She was resting well last night. All legal formalities necessary for her to subscribe to were disposed of. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Judge Day and Secretary Cortelyou went to the office of the probate judge and offered the will of President McKinley for probate. They carried with them the following:

"I, Ida S. McKinley, widow of William McKinley, deceased, hereby decline the administration of his estate and recommend the appointment of William R. Day and George B. Cortelyou as administrators with the will annexed."

This recommendation bears the date of Sept. 27, 1901.

Following is the text of President McKinley's will:

Contents of the Will.

"Executive Mansion,

Washington, D. C.

"I publish the following as my latest will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills:

"To my beloved wife, Ida S. McKinley, I bequeath all of my real estate, wherever situated, and the income of any personal property of which I may be possessed at death, during her natural life. I make the following charge upon all of my property, both real and personal: To pay my mother during her life $1,000 a year, and at her death said sum to be paid to my sister, Helen McKinley. If the income from property be insufficient to keep my wife in great comfort and pay the annuity above provided, then I direct that such of my property be sold so as to make a sum adequate for both purposes. Whatever property remains at the death of my wife I give to my brother and sisters, share and share alike. My chief concern is that my wife, from my estate, shall have all she requires for her comfort and pleasure, and that my mother shall be provided with whatever money she requires to make her old age comfortable and happy."

"Witness my hand and seal, this 22d day of October, 1897, to my last will and testament, made at the city of Washington, District of Columbia. (Signed) "William McKinley."

(Seal)—The foregoing will was witnessed by us this 22d day of October, 1897, at the request of the testator, and his name signed hereto in our presence and our signatures hereto in his presence.

G. B. Cortelyou,
Charles Loeffler.

Value of the Estate.

It is given out on authority that the McKinley estate will total $225,000 to $250,000, including life insurance of $67,000. Aside from this insurance the estate consists of real estate here and contiguous to Canton, and of deposits in Washington banks. Monday morning has been fixed by the probate court for a hearing prior to probating the will. Then, it is expected, Secretary Cortelyou and Judge Day will be finally appointed administrators of the estate, which will be annexed, and will give bond.

Secretary Cortelyou made the necessary affidavit yesterday as to the

Mr. Wm. Anderson, of 305 Lisbon street, says: "During the civil war I enlisted and served three years in the Forty-second Ohio Infantry. From the exposure during the war I attribute the severe aching and weakness in the loins and muscular rheumatism of recent years which all seemed to center in my kidneys. In the morning when first getting up I was very dizzy until I had moved around for a time and my nervous system became affected, causing a fluttering and fullness around the heart. Seeing an advertisement in the paper I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and took them. A few doses gave me relief. The improvement was gradual and continued as the medicine got more thoroughly into my system. I firmly believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will in every case, as they did in mine, prove the justness of the claims made for them."

YACHTS MAY RACE TODAY.

Will Attempt to Make Up For the Failure of Last Thursday.

New York, Sept. 28.—The first race of the America's cup series which, after a disappointing day of fluky sephers, was abandoned in a dead calm Thursday, may be sailed today over a course off the Sandy Hook lightship. A beat to windward or a run to leeward and return may be sailed, the course depending upon the direction of the wind at the time the two yachts arrive at the lightship. According to the agreement the first, the third and the fifth races are to be sailed 15 miles to windward or to leeward and return; the second and the fourth races being over a course represented by an equilateral triangle, measuring 10 nautical miles to the leg.

From an authoritative source it was learned Friday that there is a very strong protest on the part of Captain Sycamore and those in charge of the Shamrock at the start Thursday by Captain Barr. "If he is going to continue those tactics there will be serious trouble," said the person quoted. "What he did Thursday would not be tolerated for an instant in a race in British waters. He must not expect us to stand it, and we won't. Our relations with the New York Yacht club and with the principals in this event have been so extremely pleasant that it is to be hoped one man's action shall not be permitted to mar them."

PITTSBURG CLINCHES PENNANT.

By Winning From the Brooklyn Team Yesterday, They Made Victory Sure.

Pittsburg, Sept. 28.—The pennant comes to Pittsburg at last. Nearly 1,000 people at Exposition park yesterday saw Hans Wagner run all the way from second base and score the run that won the flag. A clean hit by Irishfield into left field enabled Wagner to cross the plate and end the suspense of an entire season. The spectators realized the importance of the run, as they yelled and cheered and shouted, although the Brooklyn, the old champions, had still an inning to dash down the hopes of the Pirates. They looked dangerous, as they got two on bases, before a man was put out, but heavy work of Pitcher Philppe and sharp and quick fielding by the Pirates prevented them from scoring, although they got a man as far as third base.

M'KINLEY MONUMENT FUND.

Arrangements May Be Completed Today For Receiving It, at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Sept. 28.—A sub-committee and officers to take care of a fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of President McKinley in Pittsburg will probably be appointed today. The work in connection with the plans is progressing rapidly. Robert Pitcairn, chairman of the committee, will hold a conference today and decide upon the appointments and make definite announcements. Another meeting will be held Monday at 4 o'clock.

George H. Anderson, secretary of the chamber of commerce, reports that people are coming to his office daily, inquiring for the treasurer of such a fund, which leads him to believe that a wonderful response will be made to a monument fund, when all the arrangements are made to go ahead.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escapes these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

"I publish the following as my latest will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills:

"To my beloved wife, Ida S. McKinley, I bequeath all of my real estate, wherever situated, and the income of any personal property of which I may be possessed at death, during her natural life. I make the following charge upon all of my property, both real and personal: To pay my mother during her life $1,000 a year, and at her death said sum to be paid to my sister, Helen McKinley. If the income from property be insufficient to keep my wife in great comfort and pay the annuity above provided, then I direct that such of my property be sold so as to make a sum adequate for both purposes. Whatever property remains at the death of my wife I give to my brother and sisters, share and share alike. My chief concern is that my wife, from my estate, shall have all she requires for her comfort and pleasure, and that my mother shall be provided with whatever money she requires to make her old age comfortable and happy."

"Witness my hand and seal, this 22d day of October, 1897, to my last will and testament, made at the city of Washington, District of Columbia. (Signed) "William McKinley."

(Seal)—The foregoing will was witnessed by us this 22d day of October, 1897, at the request of the testator, and his name signed hereto in our presence and our signatures hereto in his presence.

Value of the Estate.

It is given out on authority that the McKinley estate will total $225,000 to $250,000, including life insurance of $67,000. Aside from this insurance the estate consists of real estate here and contiguous to Canton, and of deposits in Washington banks. Monday morning has been fixed by the probate court for a hearing prior to probating the will. Then, it is expected, Secretary Cortelyou and Judge Day will be finally appointed administrators of the estate, which will be annexed, and will give bond.

Secretary Cortelyou made the necessary affidavit yesterday as to the

Mr. Wm. Anderson, of 205 Lisbon street, says: "During the civil war I enlisted and served three years in the Forty-second Ohio infantry. From the exposure during the war I attribute the severe aching and weakness in the joints and muscular rheumatism of recent years which all seemed to center in my kidneys. In the morning when first getting up I was very dizzy until I had moved around for a time and my nervous system became affected, causing a fluttering and fullness around the heart. Seeing an advertisement in the paper I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and took them. A few doses gave me relief. The improvement was gradual and continued as the medicine got more thoroughly into my system. I firmly believe that Doan's Kidney Pills will in every case, as they did in mine, prove the justness of the claims made for them."

EXECUTION DAYS NAMED.

Gov. Stone Appoints Dec. 12 For Biddles and Nov. 21 For William Allen.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 28.—Governor William A. Stone fixed Dec. 12 for the execution of Edward Biddle, alias Edward Wright, and John Biddle, alias John Wright. The governor also fixed Nov. 21 for the execution of William Allen, alias Pless Turbin, of Uniontown, and John Lutz, of Wilkesbarre.

YACHTS MAY RACE TODAY.

Will Attempt to Make Up For the Failure of Last Thursday.

New York, Sept. 28.—The first race of the America's cup series which, after a disappointing day of fluky sephers, was abandoned in a dead calm Thursday, may be sailed today over a course off the Sandy Hook lightship. A boat to windward or a run to leeward and return may be sailed, the course depending upon the direction of the wind at the time the two yachts arrive at the lightship. According to the agreement the first, the third and the fifth races are to be sailed 15 miles to windward or to leeward and return; the second and the fourth races being over a course represented by an equilateral triangle, measuring 10 nautical miles to the leg.

From an authoritative source it was learned Friday that there is a very strong protest on the part of Captain Sycamore and those in charge of the Shamrock at the start Thursday by Captain Barr. "If he is going to continue those tactics there will be serious trouble," said the person quoted. "What he did Thursday would not be tolerated for an instant in a race in British waters. He must not expect us to stand it, and we won't. Our relations with the New York Yacht club and with the principals in this event have been so extremely pleasant that it is to be hoped one man's action shall not be permitted to mar them."

PITTSBURG CLINCHES PENNANT.

By Winning From the Brooklyn Team Yesterday, They Made Victory Sure.

Pittsburg, Sept. 28.—The pennant comes to Pittsburg at last. Nearly 1,000 people at Exposition park yesterday saw Hans Wagner run all the way from second base and score the run that won the flag. A clean hit by Irvinfield into left field enabled Wagner to cross the plate and end the suspense of an entire season. The spectators realized the importance of the run, as they yelled, and cheered and shouted, although the Brooklyns, the old champions, had still an inning to dash down the hopes of the Pirates. They looked dangerous, as they got two on bases, before a man was put out, but heady work of Pitcher Philppe and sharp and quick fielding by the Pirates prevented them from scoring, although they got a man as far as third base.

MCKINLEY MONUMENT FUND.

Arrangements May Be Completed Today For Receiving It, at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Sept. 28.—A sub-committee and officers to take care of a fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of President McKinley in Pittsburg will probably be appointed today. The work in connection with the plans is progressing rapidly. Robert Pitcairn, chairman of the committee, will hold a conference today and decide upon the appointments and make definite announcements. Another meeting will be held Monday at 4 o'clock.

George H. Anderson, secretary of the chamber of commerce, reports that people are coming to his office daily, inquiring for the treasurer of such a fund, which leads him to believe that a wonderful response will be made to a monument fund, when all the arrangements are made to go ahead.

Census Enumerator Clawson, Who is also editor of "The Herald," at Howe, Ind. T., writes:

"To Whom It May Concern—I was a sufferer from stomach trouble until I was induced to try a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and I want to say that in my opinion it has no equal as a stomach remedy. I had tried many different remedies, but none with the happy results of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain. I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Draught, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and not stop work at the monthly period.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Went Fishing—A party of young men and women went to Grim's bridge this morning on a fishing excursion. This has been a better day for ducks than fish.

Sight Will Be Saved—Earl Simms, of City View, who was injured by falling over a bank and getting sand in his eyes, is much improved today. His sight will be saved.

Show Car Here—The first bill car for the Sipe Educated Animal and Lilliputian circus which is to show in this city, Saturday, Oct. 5, arrived here yesterday afternoon, and today they were busy distributing and posting their bills.

Y. P. C. T. U. Meeting—The Young People's Christian Temperance Union held a very interesting meeting in their rooms in the Golding block last night. A splendid temperance lecture was delivered to them by Rev. J. R. Greene, of the Second United Presbyterian church.

Returned Home—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Herbert returned yesterday on the noon train from a two-weeks' wedding trip spent at Buffalo, Cleveland and Michigan points. The trip was much enjoyed by both. They will live for the present at the home of Mr. Herbert's mother.

Wanted to Fight—A drunken Italian from Wellsville got unruly in an up-town saloon this morning and wanted to clean out the place. The bartender with much difficulty succeeded in subduing the man, who had picked up a big cheese knife. A hick-y "persuader" was used on him and he was finally hustled into the alley.

Benefit Foot Ball Game—The Rovers and the Buckeyes will contest at foot ball at Rock Springs park Saturday, October 12. An admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will be given to Joseph Wynes, a former member of the Rovers and a well known potter. Mr. Wynes has consumption and his friends want to raise money to send him to a health resort.

LADIES ONLY, TONIGHT

Dr. Beardsley Will Give Two Special Illustrated Lectures.

At Y. M. C. A. hall tonight, Dr. Beardsley will deliver a special illustrated lecture to ladies and girls only, and on next Monday evening for men and boys only. Both lectures will be splendidly illustrated. These special lectures are highly commended by clergymen, teachers and all thinking people who have heard them.

Admission for adults, 15 cents. Boys girls under 15 years 10 cents. All season tickets will admit holders.

Read what Rev. W. W. Lance, presiding elder of the Findlay (O.) district wrote: The illustrated lectures delivered by Dr. Beardsley in Fostoria have been most favorably received. They were both chaste and valuable, though treating in his special lectures to men and women separately some of the most delicate questions of the human body. His lectures have been regularly attended by our best citizens, and the doctor has shown himself while here to be a true Christian gentleman, who aims to inspire all his auditors to be what correct living and virtue may make them. 891h

HARVEST HOME AT ST. STEPHEN'S

Impressive Exercises Held in the Episcopal Church Last Evening.

THE DECORATIONS SUPERB

Interior of the Edifice a Bower of Beauty—Choice Music And Impressive Addresses Were Features—A Most Successful Festival.

One of the most important and successful functions in church circles, in East Liverpool's history was the harvest home festival, which was held last night at St. Stephen's Episcopal church. The rector, Rev. Edwin Weary, together with many of his congregation, worked hard and diligently for the success of the undertaking, and they were not disappointed. In fact it surpassed in excellence and interest the expectations of everybody and was an event long to be remembered.

Supper was served in the parish building from 5 to 8 o'clock. About 400 persons sat down to a sumptuous feast, which had been prepared by the ladies of the church, and which was thoroughly enjoyed. Almost everything to tempt the appetite was in evidence and the repast was a most fitting beginning of the event which grew gradually in interest until the close.

The service was held in the church and began at 8:30 o'clock. Previous to the commencement of the service, however, a vast crowd of visitors gathered to view the decorations, which surpassed in every particular any of the kind ever seen in the city. They were both handsome and artistic and were put in place by skillful hands. It was the unanimous verdict that no decoration could be more appropriate and better arranged, and so say that the interior of the edifice was a bower of beauty but a mild explanation of its real grandeur. One special and attractive feature was the harvest cross, six feet in height and decorated with the fruits and flowers of the harvest. Another was a large sheaf of wheat and sickle, symbolizing the text: "Thrust in the Sickle for the Corn is Ripe." Other attractive ornamentations were profusely placed about the church. The decoration will remain in place until after the Sunday service.

The musical part of the service was rendered by a vested choir of 40 voices. Appropriate harvest hymns were sung, the anthem, "Oh Lord, How Manifold Are Thy Works," was beautifully rendered, as was also a solo by Miss Everson. The service was sung by the rector, after which the Rev. G. Pitblado, of Salem, addressed the assemblage on the subject "Seaside in Harvest." The effort was a most powerful one and displayed much deep thought. Rev. Mr. Pitblado is not only a forcible speaker, but he is entertaining. His address was enjoyed to the fullest measure.

Following the address of Rev. Mr. Pitblado, the subject of "Gratitude" was ably and pleasingly treated on by Rev. T. Williams, of Martin's Ferry. His address also was expressive of careful thought and strikingly appropriate. Rev. Mr. Weary made the closing address on the subject of "Thankfulness." He spoke in a manner that forcibly demonstrated that his utterances were dictations from the heart and his hearers were profoundly impressed.

The grand Te Deum was sung by the choir and congregation, after which the benediction was pronounced. The choir then rendered the recessional, "On Our Way Rejoicing," and slowly marching down the aisle, passed out of the church at the tower door into the parish house.

Thus was brought to a close the most successful harvest home festival ever held in the city. The church was crowded.

A Unique Exhibition.

On Saturday, Oct. 5 at West End park there will appear in this city an exhibition that for novelty, uniqueness and surprising features has never been excelled. The Sipe educated animal and Lilliputian shows carry this season to properly present in a magnificent manner absolutely the largest educated animal exhibition on the face of the globe, 185 ponies, 250 dogs, 200 monkeys and an aviary of rare birds. Collectively this aggregation represents a novelty never before attempted by any other amusement enterprise.

Unknown Canada.

One-third of the area of Canada is practically unknown. There are more than 1,250,000 square miles of unexplored lands in Canada. The entire area of the Dominion is computed at 3,450,257 square miles; consequently one-third of this country has yet been untraveled by the explorer. Exclusive of the inhospitable detached arctic portions, 954,000 square miles are for all practical purposes entirely unknown. Most of this unknown area is distributed in the western half of the Dominion in impenetrated blocks of from 25,000 to 100,000 square miles—that is, areas as large as the states of Ohio, Kansas or New England are yet a secret to white man.—National Geographic Magazine.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Went Fishing—A party of young men and women went to Grim's bridge this morning on a fishing excursion. This has been a better day for ducks than fish.

Sight Will Be Saved—Earl Simms, of City View, who was injured by falling over a bank and getting sand in his eyes, is much improved today. His sight will be saved.

Show Car Here—The first bill car for the Sipe Educated Animal and Lilliputian circus which is to show in this city, Saturday, Oct. 5, arrived here yesterday afternoon, and today they were busy distributing and posting their bills.

Y. P. C. T. U. Meeting—The Young People's Christian Temperance Union held a very interesting meeting in their rooms in the Golding block last night. A splendid temperance lecture was delivered to them by Rev. J. R. Greene, of the Second United Presbyterian church.

Returned Home—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Herbert returned yesterday on the noon train from a two-weeks' wedding trip spent at Buffalo, Cleveland and Michigan points. The trip was much enjoyed by both. They will live for the present at the home of Mr. Herbert's mother.

Wanted to Fight—A drunken Italian from Wellsville got unruly in an up-town saloon this morning and wanted to clean out the place. The bartender with much difficulty succeeded in subduing the man, who had picked up a big cheese knife. A hick y "persuader" was used on him and he was finally hustled into the alley.

Benefit Foot Ball Game—The Rovers and the Buckeyes will contest at foot ball at Rock Springs park Saturday, October 12. An admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will be given to Joseph Wynes, a former member of the Rovers and a well known potter. Mr. Wynes has consumption and his friends want to raise money to send him to a health resort.

Hats, 98 cents, $1.48, $2, $2.50. Largest line in the city at Joseph Bros. 89-h

LADIES ONLY, TONIGHT

Dr. Beardsley Will Give Two Special Illustrated Lectures.

At Y. M. C. A. hall tonight, Dr. Beardsley will deliver a special illustrated lecture to ladies and girls only, and on next Monday evening for men and boys only. Both lectures will be splendidly illustrated. These special lectures are highly commended by clergymen, teachers and all thinking people who have heard them.

Admission for adults, 15 cents. Boys girls under 15 years 10 cents. All season tickets will admit holders.

Read what Rev. W. W. Lance, presiding elder of the Findlay (O.) district wrote: The illustrated lectures delivered by Dr. Beardsley in Fostoria have been most favorably received. They were both chaste and valuable, though treating in his special lectures to men and women separately some of the most delicate questions of the human body. His lectures have been regularly attended by our best citizens, and the doctor has shown himself while here to be a true Christian gentleman, who aims to inspire all his auditors to be what correct living and virtue may make them. 89lh

HARVEST HOME AT ST. STEPHEN'S

Impressive Exercises Held in the Episcopal Church Last Evening.

THE DECORATIONS SUPERB

Interior of the Edifice a Bower of Beauty—Choice Music And Impressive Addresses Were Features—A Most Successful Festival.

One of the most important and successful functions in church circles, in East Liverpool's history was the harvest home festival, which was held last night at St. Stephen's Episcopal church. The rector, Rev. Edwin Weary, together with many of his congregation, worked hard and diligently for the success of the undertaking, and they were not disappointed. In fact it surpassed in excellence and interest the expectations of everybody and was an event long to be remembered.

Supper was served in the parish building from 5 to 8 o'clock. About 400 persons sat down to a sumptuous feast, which had been prepared by the ladies of the church, and which was thoroughly enjoyed. Almost every thing to tempt the appetite was in evidence and the repast was a most fitting beginning of the event which grew gradually in interest until the close.

The service was held in the church and began at 8:30 o'clock. Previous to the commencement of the service, however, a vast crowd of visitors gathered to view the decorations, which surpassed in every particular any of the kind ever seen in the city. They were both handsome and artistic and were put in place by skillful hands. It was the unanimous verdict that no decoration could be more appropriate and better arranged, and so say that the interior of the edifice was a bower of beauty is but a mild explanation of its real grandeur. One special and attractive feature was the harvest cross, six feet in height and decorated with the fruits and flowers of the harvest. Another was a large sheaf of wheat and sickle, symbolizing the text: "Thrust in the Sickle for the Corn is Ripe." Other attractive ornamentations were profusely placed about the church. The decoration will remain in place until after the Sunday service.

The musical part of the service was rendered by a vested choir of 40 voices. Appropriate harvest hymns were sung, the anthem, "Oh Lord, How Manifold Are Thy Works," was beautifully rendered, as was also a solo by Miss Everson. The service was sung by the rector, after which the Rev. G. Pitblado, of Salem, addressed the assemblage on the subject "Seaside in Harvest." The effort was a most powerful one and displayed much deep thought. Rev. Mr. Pitblado is not only a forcible speaker, but he is entertaining. His address was enjoyed to the fullest measure.

Following the address of Rev. Mr. Pitblado, the subject of "Gratitude" was ably and pleasingly treated on by Rev. T. Williams, of Martin's Ferry. His address also was expressive of careful thought and strikingly appropriate. Rev. Mr. Weary made the closing address on the subject of "Thankfulness." He spoke in a manner that forcibly demonstrated that his utterances were dictations from the heart and his hearers were profoundly impressed.

The grand Te Deum was sung by the choir and congregation, after which the benediction was pronounced. The choir then rendered the recessional, "On Our Way Rejoicing," and slowly marching down the aisle, passed out of the church at the tower door into the parish house.

Thus was brought to a close the most successful harvest home festival ever held in the city. The church was crowded.

A Unique Exhibition.

On Saturday, Oct. 5 at West End park there will appear in this city an exhibition that for novelty, uniqueness and surprising features has never been excelled. The Sipe educated animal and Lilliputian shows carry this season to properly present in a magnificent manner absolutely the largest educated animal exhibition on the face of the globe, 185 ponies, 250 dogs, 200 monkeys and an aviary of rare birds. Collectively this aggregation represents a novelty never before attempted by any other amusement enterprise.
